U.S. Government Required Disclaimer (Required by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission)
Futures and options trading has large potential rewards, but also large potential risk. You must be aware of the risks and be willing to accept them in order to invest in the futures and options markets. Don't trade with money you can't afford to lose. This website and the products, services and other information contained herein is neither a solicitation nor an offer to Buy/Sell futures or options. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to those discussed on this website. The past performance of any trading system or methodology is not necessarily indicative of future results.

Trading Involves Risk

Use of any of this information is entirely at your own risk, for which Alexander Trading will not be liable. CFTC RULE 4.41.(b)(1)(i)

Hypothetical or simulated performance results have certain limitations. Unlike an actual performance record, simulated results do not represent actual trading. Also, because these trades have not actually been executed, these results may have under-or over-compensated for the impact, if any, of certain market factors, such as lack of liquidity. Simulated or hypothetical trading programs in general are also subject to the fact that they are designed with the benefit of hindsight. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to these being shown.

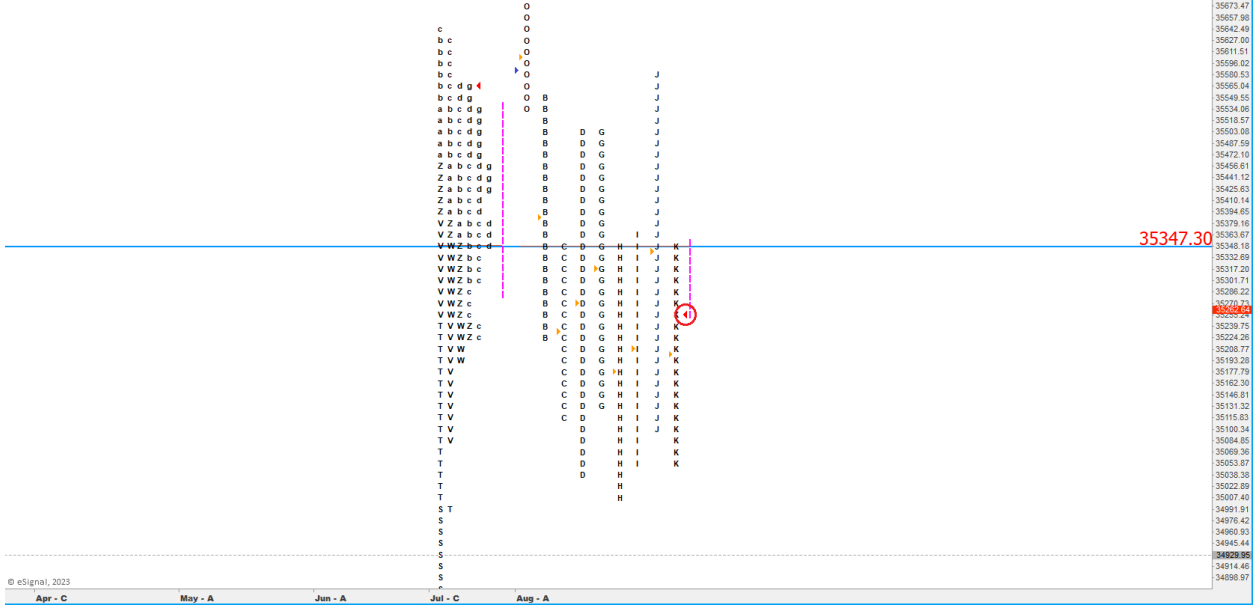

Bottom Line:

Auction Market price action suggests the decline from the highs is simply a pause in a ledger degree uptrend than anything more significant than that. Balance/consolidation was overdue and we may not be done with that market phase for a while.

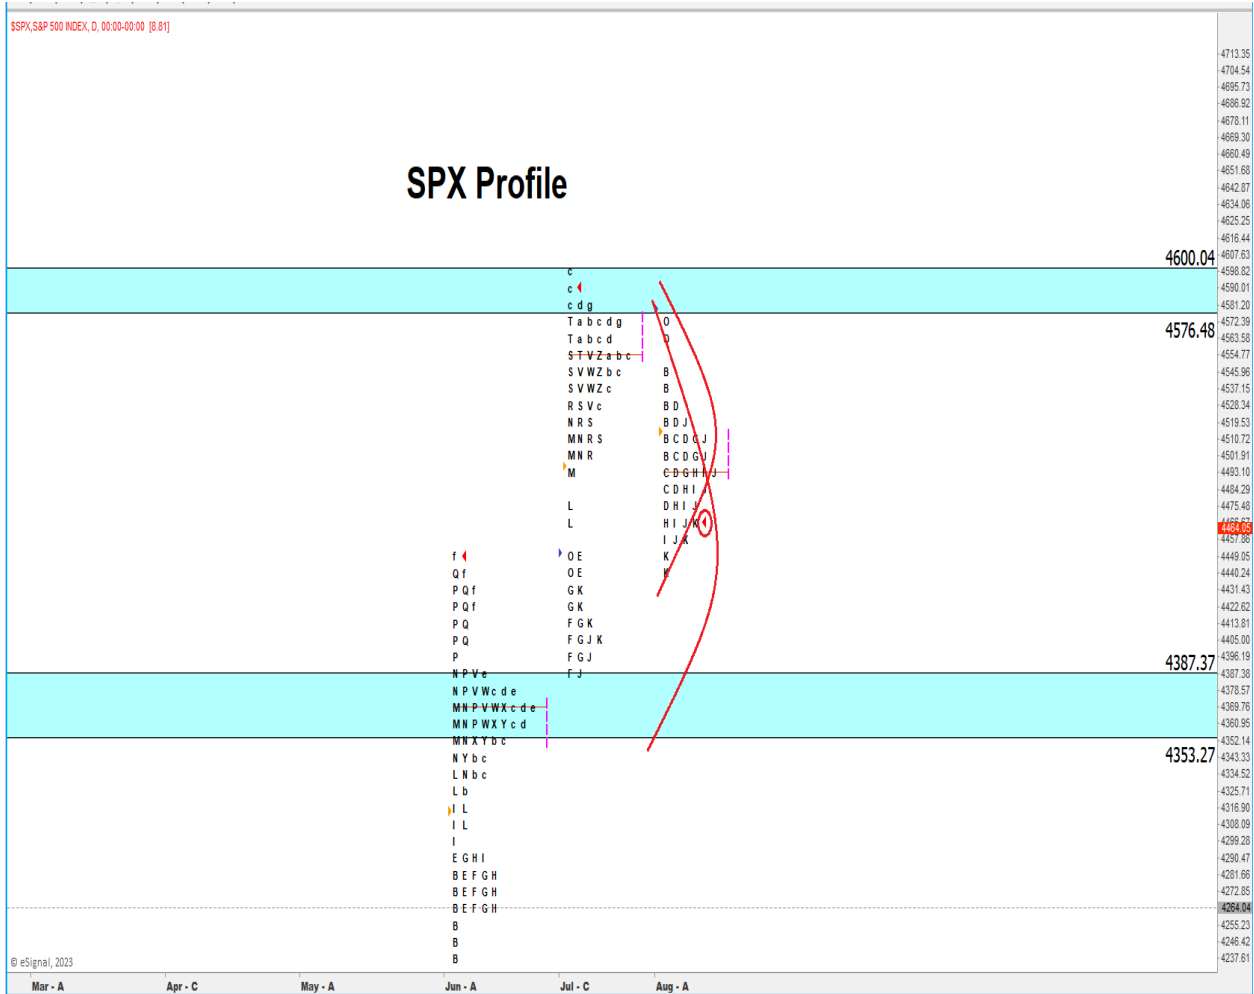

The DOW is remarkably Balanced and should break sharply, soon.

Internals

Nothing particularly helpful

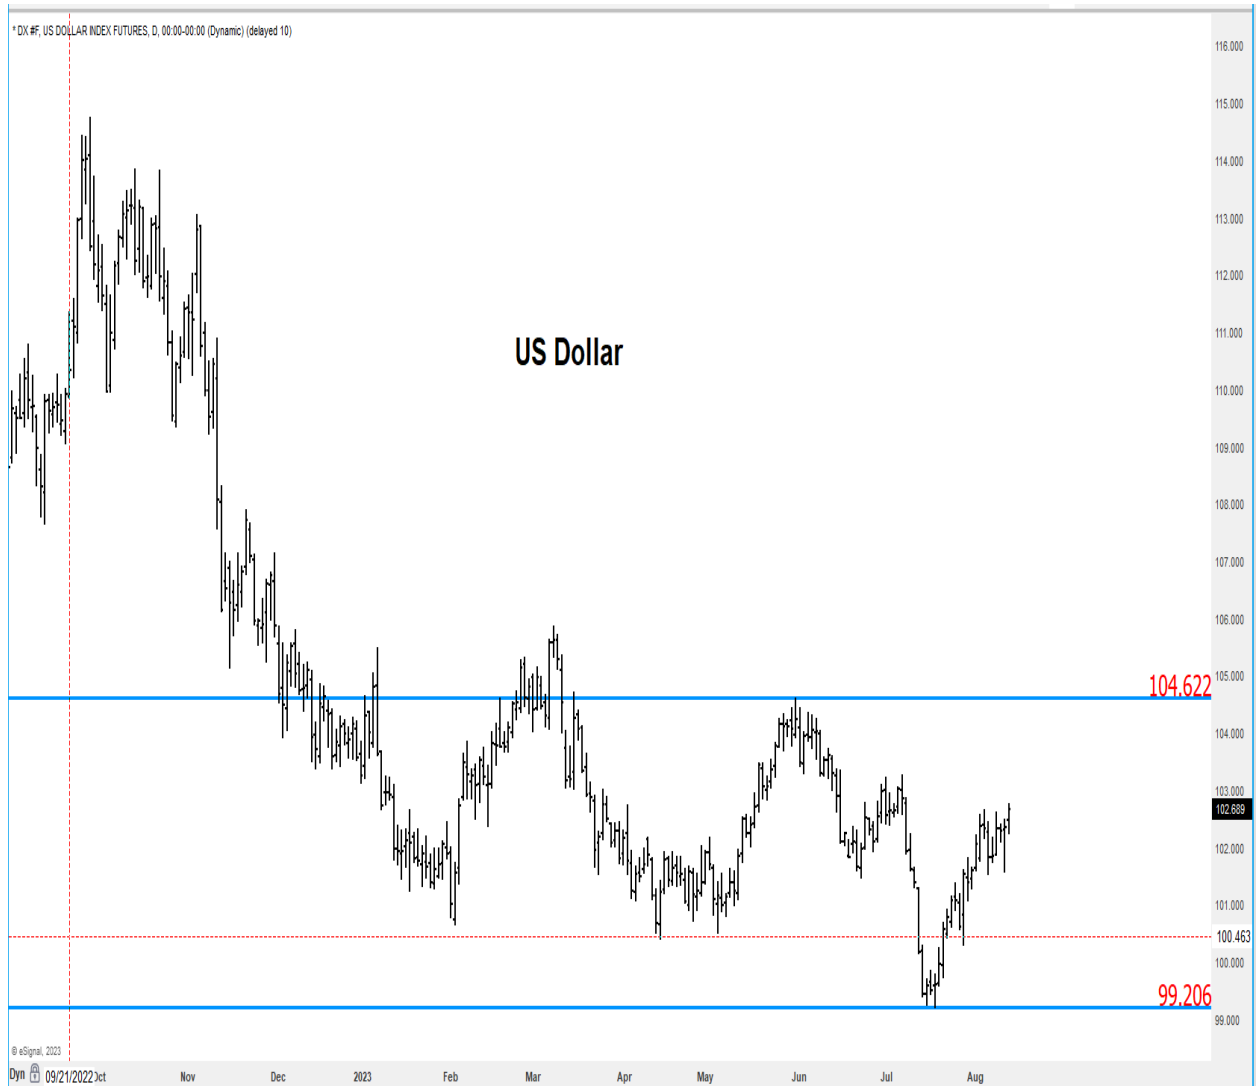

US 10-yr Notes

Lower lows and highs firmly intact.

US Dollar

Larger degree development is still down.

Gold

Between levels but consider giving the benefit of the doubt to the upside.

Crude

Whippy but higher..higher highs and lows.
